

ENTRANCES, BUILDING

ON-GRADE ENTRANCES:

The floor level(s) of new structures and major additions to existing structures should be established at an elevation, and integrated with the final topography of the site, whereby steps or switchback ramps are not required in the exterior approach path to any significant point of