

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

FALL 2020 PLANNING

4/24/2020

Q: Why are you announcing this now, versus waiting until the fall semester gets closer?

A: We're announcing this now because we want to be clear about our expectations for the fall semester. We want to make sure that everyone is aware of the changes we're making and the steps we're taking to ensure a safe learning environment. We want to give everyone time to prepare for the fall semester and to make any necessary adjustments to their schedules and course selections.

Q: What steps might you take to ensure a safe learning environment?

A: We will be implementing several steps to ensure a safe learning environment. We will be providing masks and hand sanitizer to all students and faculty. We will be implementing social distancing measures in all classrooms and common areas. We will be providing regular cleaning and disinfection of all surfaces. We will be providing a safe and healthy learning environment for all students and faculty. We will be providing a safe and healthy learning environment for all students and faculty. We will be providing a safe and healthy learning environment for all students and faculty.

Q:

Q: I don't think I'll feel safe coming back to campus this fall. Will you force me to return?

A: We understand the concerns of our students and faculty. We encourage everyone to feel safe and healthy. We will work with you to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed. We will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed. We will not force anyone to return to campus.

Q: I'm a student. For safety reasons, I prefer to stay home and take my classes online this fall. Can you guarantee all my courses will be available online?

A: We can't guarantee that all courses will be available online, but we will do our best to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed. We will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed. We will work with you to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed.

Q: Depending on whether any Nebraska communities are COVID-19 "hot spots" when fall comes, could an individual NU campus elect to continue remote education, even if other campuses welcome students back to campus?

A: Yes. Some campuses may be able to continue remote education if they are in a "hot spot" area. We will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed. We will work with you to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed.

Q: Will all campus facilities be open this fall?

A: Campus facilities will be open to the extent possible. We will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed. We will work with you to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed.

Q: You mentioned regular testing for COVID-19. Are you confident sufficient testing will be available?

A: We are confident that sufficient testing will be available. We will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed. We will work with you to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed.

Q: Does this mean you expect collegiate sports, musical performances and other large events to resume this fall?

A: We expect that some events will resume this fall. We will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed. We will work with you to ensure that you have the resources you need to succeed.

