

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HR AND PAYROLL COVID-19 FAQs FOR EMPLOYEES

8/1/21

Q: How are employees paid if they are absent from work due to a COVID-19 related illness?

A: Employees who are absent from work due to a COVID-19 related illness are eligible for paid leave under the University's COVID-19 Emergency Paid Leave program. Employees who are absent from work due to a COVID-19 related illness are eligible for paid leave under the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA). Employees who are absent from work due to a COVID-19 related illness are eligible for paid leave under the University's Family Medical Leave policy.

Q: Can employees receive paid leave for COVID-19 related absences under either the University's COVID-19 Emergency Paid Leave program or under the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA)?

A: Employees who are absent from work due to a COVID-19 related illness are eligible for paid leave under the University's COVID-19 Emergency Paid Leave program or under the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA).

Q: Do employees qualify for leave under the University's Family Medical Leave policy if they are absent due to a COVID-19 related illness?

A: Employees who are absent from work due to a COVID-19 related illness are eligible for leave under the University's Family Medical Leave policy.

... ()-1()..0- ()- ()-()

